Dear Sir:

The following is a request under the Freedom of Information Act as amended (5. U.S.C. §552).

I request the documents, records, and files I have listed on the attached eight pages under the headings I, II, III, IV. "I" is made up of specific, dated, and identified documents. "III" is made up of two specific, identified, but undated documents. "II" is made up of a group of CIA operations, branches, divisions, offices, etc.; in "II" I am asking for the files of these Agency groups as they record discussions concerning, the planning of, the implementation of, and the record of attempts at the elimination/assassination of Fidel Castro or any other Cuban government leader between 1959 and 1965. "IV" is made up of a list of individuals; in "IV" I am asking for any and all documents in these individuals' files as those documents record discussions concerning, the planning of, the implementation of, and the record of attempts at the elimination/assassination of Fidel Castro or any other Cuban government leader between 1959 and 1965.

As you are aware, the amended Act provides that if some parts of a file are exempt from release, "reasonably segregable" portions shall still be provided. I therefore request that, if you determine that some portion of the requested documents and files are exempt, you provide me immediately with copies of the remainder of the documents and files. I, of course, reserve my right to appeal any and all such decisions.

If you determine that some or all of the documents and files are exempt from release, I would appreciate your advising me as to which exemption you believe covers the material you are not releasing.

I am prepared to pay reasonable costs for locating the requested documents and files and for reproducing them. But, as you are aware, the amended Act permits you to reduce or waive the fees if that reduction or waiver "is in the public interest because furnishing the information can be considered as primarily benefiting the public." I believe this request clearly fits in that category: I am requesting these documents and files since they have been referred to, excerpted, quoted (in part), or cited in a number of official reports, hearings, and published works. I am requesting these documents and files as a university researcher and teacher. I ask, therefore, that you waive any fees.
